

Enterprise Zone Tax Credit

State Tax Credit for Contributions to Denver Kids, Inc.

Did you know?

Denver Kids is included in the Enterprise Zone Tax Credit program. This means that the State of Colorado allows you to take up to a 25% tax credit on your state income taxes when you make a donation to Denver Kids, subject to certain requirements and limitations.

Donations to Denver Kids are generally tax-deductible for federal and Colorado state income tax purposes, provided that the taxpayer otherwise qualifies to take a charitable contribution deduction. In addition, 2017 donations may also qualify for added benefits to the donor regarding their Colorado state income taxes. All taxpayers (individuals and businesses) that file Colorado state income tax returns may be eligible for the tax credit.

Donations given through United Way, Community Shares, ColoradoGives or other nonprofit third parties may also be eligible for the state tax credit.

Please see Colorado State publication, "FYI Income 23," for information on computing the credit. Note: situations vary; please consult your tax advisor.

How to Donate
